CHARLES J. GILLETT DIES AT AGE OF 87

Was a Native of the Town
and Had Always Lived
There

Southwick, July 9—Charles J. Gillett, 87, died at his home this morning at 4.45 after several months' illness. He was born in this town, the son of Socrates and Sophia Holcomb Gillett, and had always lived here. On February 21, 1872 he married Julia Ann Luck of Windsor, Ct. They had five children, Mrs Fannie Skinner, with whom he lived, Miss Harriet M. of Philadelphia, Miss Lucy H. of New York city, Chester S. and Arthur C.; two grandchildren and one brother, Edward Gillett of this town, and one sister, Mrs Mary Hamilton of Westfield. Mr Gillett was a successful cigar manufacturer in his earlier days. He was a member of the official board of the Methodist Episcopal church for many years.

The funeral will be held at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev W. H. Dockham officiating. Burial in the New cemetery.
